Route Description

This route involves some strenuous climbing around 3,820’ Lyon Mountain, the highest point in Clinton County and through some of the most sparsely settled areas in the county. Shortly after the Saranac Town Hall the first climb Russia (pronounced Roo-sha) Hill begins, a 1 mi. climb. About halfway up the hill there is a 1/4 mile dirt road leading to a parking lot at the top of High Falls Dam with a nice view. The last store for 15 miles is in Clayburg about 1/4 mi. before the Climber turns onto Standish Rd. and starts the major climb. In Standish the route takes a sharp right turn toward the hamlet of Lyon Mtn. and climbs for about 3/4 mi. to the high point, 1989 ft. Just before entering Lyon Mtn., there is a public spring.

Chazy Lake can be seen at a number of points south of Rt. 374. and at mile 33 the trip becomes all downhill. There is a great view of the Saranac Valley just before Nashville Rd. where Chazy Lake Rd. turns right for the downhill to Pickett’s Corners.
